A one-day seminar on the life, scholarship, and religion of Imam Azam Abu Hanifa (رحمة الله عليه)

A one-day seminar was held on the life, scholarship, and religion of Imam Abu Hanifa (may Allah have mercy on him).

Today, Tuesday, 1403/10/18, in the conference hall of the Uruzgan Higher Education Institute, a one-day seminar was held for the teachers, administrative, and service staff of the Uruzgan Higher Education Institute and the Directorate of Information and Culture on the life, scholarship, and religion of Imam Abu Hanifa (رحمة الله عليه).

The program, which began with the recitation of several verses of the Holy Quran, was opened by the President of the Uruzgan Higher Education Institute, Maulvi Rahmatullah Rahmani, who welcomed the participants of the seminar and emphasized the importance of the seminar and the organization of more such seminars in the future.

Mr. Rahmani also said: "It is necessary for Muslims to gain knowledge about the life and scholarship of Imam Abu Hanifa and prepare their lives on the path he has chosen".

Later, Maulvi Faiz Muhammad Farooqi spoke about the importance of unity and solidarity in Islam and the Hanafi school of thought, and said that there are no boundaries in Islam and the Hanafi school of thought, and all Muslims of the world should adopt a life of unity and solidarity.

He also added that, thank God, with the arrival of the Islamic State in Afghanistan, the world of hypocrisy has disappeared, and all Afghans are living a happy life under the umbrella of the Islamic State in an atmosphere of brotherhood, unity, and solidarity.

In the seminar, other religious scholars, Maulvi Akhtar Muhammad Saqib and Maulvi Aminullah Raji, delivered comprehensive speeches on the scientific status, religion, piety, and Islamic religion of Imam Abu Hanifa (may God have mercy on him). They said that the life of Imam Azam is an example of knowledge and piety, and Muslims should adopt his path.

Finally, the participants emphasized following the teachings of Imam Azam and prayed to God (G) for the unity and progress of the Islamic Ummah. Uruzgan Institute of Higher Education.
